SOCIAL EVENTS:	DATE	EVENT	PLACE	TIME
	TODAY	JV/V Girls BB vs Whiting	Highland	5:30/7:00 pm

With a score of over 25,000 points, the Academic Decathlon team took first place in the area competition this past Saturday at Crown Point High School. Congratulations are in order for Leah Thornton, Heaven Phillips, Matt Cotner, Chris Peters, Jade Watts, Mackenzie Lewis, Victoria Shamel, and Natalie Szabo who all medaled or achieved high scores in many of the events. Special congratulations to Zach Fraley for successfully defending his spot as the gold medal recipient for overall individual score, as he medaled in every category. Congratulations, all, and good luck at the state competition in February!

The JV and Varsity girls basketball teams remain unbeaten in the new year defeating Munster Friday night. The JV girls won in thrilling fashion to start the night and the varsity followed suit with a hard fought 52-36 victory over the Mustangs. Taylor Steele was the games leading scorer with 19 and Morgan Rinkema chipped in 16 including 4 3 pointers. The girls will play their final regular season game at home on Tuesday. We will be celebrating senior night for Taylor Steele, Cassidy Morinville, Danielle Fowler and Keelie Gragid
