SOCIAL EVENTS:	DATE	EVENT	PLACE	TIME
	TODAY	V Baseball vs Merrillville	Merrillville	4:30 pm

Tomorrow is Earth Day. Many people think that person can't make an impact. That is simply wrong. You can have an impact. If every person in America did not eat meat or cheese just 1 day a week for a year, it's like taking 7.6 million cars off the road. Recycling 1 aluminum will save enough energy to watch 3 hours of TV. Skip the plastic straw, they can't be recycled. Each day humans use 500 million plastic straws. They are made with petroleum and do not decompose easily, often eaten by birds or fish. So what can you do tomorrow to make a difference, how about once a week, or once a day even? Happy Earth Day from Mrs. Weber.
